Mary's Update

Dear Praying Partners,

As I sat in the presence of the Lord, worshiping and adoring Him, because of His great love towards me, I thought of you who have been a part of my life and ministry. I am so grateful to the Lord because of each and every one of you. The roles you have played as prayer partners and supporters are so significant to me and the ministry in Thailand. Thank you for standing with me in this great task. During this Christmas season, I want you to hear from some of the ladies regarding what the Lord has been doing in their lives throughout the year 2010.

Lookyee

This year, I have learned how to read and interpret the scriptures, which helps me understand the things of God more clearly, as well as how to apply them in my daily walk. When facing trials, I learned to look at them positively and believe that every problem is a good thing from the Lord. God uses trials to mold me, teach me lessons, and test whether I will be able to praise Him and trust in Him, be thankful to Him, rejoice in Him and pray to Him at all times. With God's help, I am getting there. My quick-temper has calmed down and I am able to handle my anger better. I am also learning to conquer my own weaknesses by memorizing the Word of God. It's working and is very exciting!

God has drawn me away from focusing on business and worldly success, and now I focus on being a godly woman, wife and the mother God meant me to be. By God's power, many changes have taken place in my life. I am now able to share my faith and be a witness to my family, friends and others. My husband commented that he never thought I could become a submissive wife the way I am today! This year, we are able to open our home for Bible study for our close friends. Through God's grace, many of us are changing from walking according to our own fleshly desires to allowing God to take control and lead our lives. To God be the glory!

Manee

This year, I have learned that God is in control of my life as a result of facing an eye problem with age-related macular degeneration (AMD). At first, when the doctor told me that the treatment would take a long time in order to see some results, I became fearful and worried. Then God’s Word from Deut. 31:8; James 1:2; and Rom. 8:28 entered my heart and mind and I decided to memorize them right away. Soon the anxieties ceased, my heart settled down and I found that the problems became easier to handle as a result of memorizing God’s Word and reciting it daily. Today, my eyesight is almost back to normal and my faith has increased as well.

Toom

In the past, my life was filled with struggles and failures because I did what was right in my own eyes instead of doing God’s will. I had no peace, no joy and my spirit was brought very low. I was also very sick physically. On top of that, I have been reaping the results of a rebellious spirit from my own children, which is so painful. When I repented, and started to obey God by involving Him in all areas of my life, I realized that He is very near and always ready to help in times of trouble. Today, I experience God’s peace and am also learning to put my trust in Him more. I don’t feel so alone anymore.

Vun

This year, as I continue to walk with God, He rescued my family from an economic crisis. In the midst of life’s confusion, He has granted me wisdom and taught me to put my trust in Him. He has also taught me to submit to the leadership of my non-believing husband according to 1 Peter 3:1-6; and this is a great encouragement to him. My behavior towards non-believing neighbors has changed for the better as well. My close friends have noticed a big change within me and they are amazed. Praise God for changing me and preparing me to be His vessel to spread the good news of peace.

Nun

I have been a Christian less than two years, and my life has been gradually changing. I was hot-tempered, always fretting and rushing to make decisions without thinking them through properly. God’s grace and His Word have calmed my life. I used to live with anxieties, but now I am learning to cast my cares upon Him according to 1 Peter 5:7. God, in His goodness, has delivered me from losing my house due to financial struggles. At my wit’s end, I cried out to the Lord in agony, He sent a kind new believer to pay off my debt in an amazing way. How I praise God for His goodness and mercy.

In Him,
Chanaddah Chaisakorn

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among men with whom He is pleased.
Luke 2:14
