

Women's Ministry in Thailand

April 2012

*“The LORD sat as King at the flood; Yes,
the LORD sits as King forever.”*

Psalm 29:10

Mary's Update

Dear Prayer Warriors,

Many of you are wondering how I am coping after the heavy flooding in Thailand and how the women's ministry has been affected by it. Let me assure you that the flooding only destroyed my temporal belongings, but not my faith in God. I am still here and pressing on, regardless of the many stressful ordeals I endured. It took three months of hard work to clean up the huge mess; having my condominium renovated and things put back in order. While dealing with the chaos, God spoke to me through Psalm 29:10 “The Lord sat as King at the flood; Yes, the Lord sits as King forever.” I praise God for having allowed me to go through this difficult time so that He could show me His faithfulness throughout.

Thai women in Switzerland

Regarding my trip to Europe this past fall, I have been anxiously waiting to share it with you. I had a wonderful time ministering to the spiritual needs of some Thai women in Switzerland and Germany. My original plan for my 10 week trip was to teach for six weeks and take a four week vacation. However, the spiritual needs were so great that I had to forgo my vacation. I taught several groups of Thai women, many times a week, throughout the entire ten weeks while I was there. Amazingly, through God's powerful Word and work in their lives, these women have been set free from sin and false teachings. Furthermore, my teachings on CD have been distributed to many Thai women in various countries of Europe! The feedback has been very encouraging because their lives have been changed. They have requested even more of the teachings on CD. Praise God!

Women's retreat in Munich, Germany

After six weeks in Switzerland, I traveled to Munich, Germany in October as a guest speaker to MICC's women's retreat. I thought Pastor Steve Henderson was brave when he invited me to be a guest speaker for this group of international women, knowing that English is not my mother tongue. Praise God that they understood me! I truly enjoyed being in their midst and hearing many wonderful testimonies about how God had touched their hearts in special ways. Believe me, they all have touched my heart with their love, care, and support and I could never have asked for more. I was so blessed!

Teaching on CD's

The CD's in the picture were used during this last trip to Europe. Thai women in various countries want more teachings to meet their spiritual hunger. It makes a difference in their lives. They use the CD's in their small groups and for personal study. Now that my living situation is back to normal, I must work hard to produce new teachings. I need God's wisdom as I prepare, study and research. My health is still limited because I cannot sit for long periods of time. When I do, I suffer with great back pain which prevents me from continuing my work. This has been a thorn in my flesh since I had back surgery in 1984. Though, I must not complain because I can still move around and being careful, do my work.

Helping Hands

Last, but not least, I am so encouraged by several of you who reached out to me with helping hands while I went through the difficulty of the flooding and the damage it caused. Thank you very much for all your prayers and gifts of support. I am grateful to the Lord for all of you.

In Him,
Chanaddah Chaisakorn
